Dear Mr. Lippe,

On behalf of Eli Lilly and Company, I would like to congratulate you on receiving the Lilly Diabetes Journey Awards 25-Year Insulin Medal. It is my honor to commemorate your accomplishment with the enclosed 25-Year Medal. This is truly a celebration of your hard work and determination.

Each person's journey with diabetes is unique, and by managing that journey so well over so many years, you inspire us. At Lilly, we hope that our innovations in diabetes treatment – beginning with the first commercial insulin more than 80 years ago, to the many advances in medicines, technology and solutions beyond therapy since – have provided support along that journey, and we consider it an honor to honor you.

Lilly launched the medal program in 1974, modeled after the prestigious medals given by the Joslin Diabetes Center at Harvard University. You may also be eligible to receive this honor through Joslin. For more information, please visit http://www.joslin.org/Giving_to_Joslin_Medalist.asp or contact:

Sincerely,
